PENANG

GEORGE TOWN

Welcome to the George Town UNESCO World Heritage Site. Situated on the northeast quarter of the Penang island, George Town is the capital of Penang and perhaps the second busiest city in Malaysia after Kuala Lumpur. Every year, thousands of people who visit Penang start their journey here. Whether you touch down at sunrise or step down from your cruise-liner in the evening, the experience will be just as unique.

For centuries, George Town has been the port of call for ships from all over the world. Today, the sense that overwhelms every traveller here is no different from when the founder Captain Francis Light and his first settlers made land here in 1786 - the desire to explore, discover and indulge.

Core Zone (109.38 hectares)

Buffer Zone (150.04 hectares)

On 7 July 2008, George Town, together with Malacca, were nominated and inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List as Historic Cities of the Straits of Malacca.

Both cities constitute a unique architectural and cultural townscape unparalleled anywhere in East and Southeast Asia.

EVERY CULTURE UNDER THE SUN

The George Town UNESCO World Heritage Site features Malaysia's best restored and readapted traditional architecture. Malay, Chinese, Indian, Peranakan and European - a rich blend of influences built this city. Together with the multitude of traditional trades and crafts, George Town is a living museum best viewed both in the day and night.

Spread just over 2.5 square kilometres from the port, the George Town UNESCO World Heritage Site is a compact grid of streets and buildings best explored on foot, bicycle or trishaw.

FESTIVITIES BY THE MOON

It depends on which month you arrive. The night streets of George Town are a constant bustle of festivities old and new. Traditional festivals include Pongal, Chinese New Year and Thaipusam in the first quarter of the year, then there is the Vaisakhi Celebration, Wesak Day, Ramadan, Hari Raya Aidilfitri, Hungry Ghost Festival, Nine Emperor Gods' Festival, Deepavali, Dragon Boat Festival and the list goes on.

Modern festivals line up the calendar year with arts and culture events such as the George Town Festival, George Town Literary Festival, as well as other annual events - the Penang International Food Festival, Penang Hot Air Balloon Fiesta and Penang Anime Matsuri.

SUNNY DELIGHTS

To beat the heat, the locals recommend Cendol and Ais Kacang - icy-cool desserts made on the spot. As with most local delicacies, the mix of ingredients and colours are itself a feast for the eyes be it a sweet dish or savoury. Trays of red curries and dahls at a Nasi Kandar shopfront, Nyonya cakes of all shapes and colour combinations neatly parked on a mini table in the shaded five-foot way, plates and plates of savoury Peranakan dishes seen through a house window, everything almost looks too good to eat.

Penang's street food is famous the world over for its incredible variety and taste. The must-eat street food in Penang are Char Koay Teow, Assam Laksa, Rojak, Mee Goreng, Nasi Lemak, Curry Mee, Hokkien Mee, Oh Chien (Oyster Omelette) and Roti Canai to name a few.

NEVERENDING NIGHT STALLS

At Kimberley Street, local Chinese delights are being served until midnight. Some Indian restaurants along Chulia Street and Penang Road stay open throughout the night. Boutique cafés and western diners open till late, with offerings of light events and music throughout the week. As the locals say, you'll never go hungry in Penang.

DAYLIGHT WONDERS

Bicycle and trishaw are the most convenient ways to see the city. It's also easy to stop at any point of interest for photo-taking. Trishaw riders retell stories of the places and streets they take you through. However, it is walking that gives you the absolute freedom to get the best angle and composition of the city's architectural wonders.

Selfies and wefies happen at every corner of the city - simply because the more you explore, the more nice people you meet. They are your most precious souvenirs.

COOLING NIGHT WALKS

Temperatures here drop to around 26°C in the night, making it perfect for walkabouts. At sundown, young and old, visitors and locals stroll along the streets in George Town to enjoy the breathtaking breeze and sights. At the same time, prominent historical buildings around this area and street art like the Marking George Town steel-rod sculptures are purposefully lit up for night time photo-taking.
